

EPITAPHS

Grid # 1

#2 William and John Hatfield, sons of Smith and Catherine Hatfield (who drowned in Gardiner's Bay, off the Fire Place Point by the swamping of a sail boat, September 12, 1843. Ten days afterwards their bodies were found and brought to Sag Harbor for burial).

"Put thy trust in no man in the hour of danger, for when these boys were drowned man fled from the rescue."

#3 Sally Crowell, wife of Asa
"From cares and fears & piercing pain She's fled to joys above.
Nor do we wish her to return
Nor may we court her love.
But while we view this lonely place
And read thy virtues o'er,
We drop a mournful tear and say We ne'er shall see thee more."

#5 Mary Hedges, wife of Jeremiah
"In the various relations of life she discharged her duties with fidelity to herself, her family, her neighbors, and her God.
She died in peace with the firm hope of everlasting glory beyond the grave."

#13 Benjamin Price
"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

#18 Emeline Ives, wife of E.R. Ives
"Here enthroned in the cold embrace of earth sleeps the Loved Emeline, wife of E.R. Ives."
"She sleeps, but the clods of earth press on her lov'd bosom but light."

#19 Sally Roberts, ae 10
"Promising usefulness to them she serv'd.
Death is at best a vain precarious thing.
And fair faced youth is ever on the wing."

21 Ephraim Niles, son of Peleg and Phebe

“Behold and see as you pass by As you are now so once was I As I am now so you must be Prepare for death and follow me.”

#22 George Niles

“Tho Boreas wind and Neptune’s wave Hath tossed me to and fro,
By God’s decree you plainly see I’m harbored here below.”

#25 Timothy Corniell, son of Stephen and Prigtel

“Can this tender prince be passing by Children like buds before They bloom, may die.”

#28 Egbert Smith, son of Stephen and Catherine

“This lovely boy ---- call’d early by ----- doom
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In Paradise could bloom.”

29 Susanah Welden, daughter of Jonathan and Mehitable

“Happy the babe

who privileged by fate To shorter labours & a lighter weight Receiv’d but yesterday
the gift of breath.”

#30 Abigail Jagger, relict of Captain William

“With love her soul was fir’d Triumphant she expired,
To meet her God above
In realms of peace and love.”

#32 Benjamin Jagger, son of William and Abigail

“No age nor sex can death defy, Think mortals what it is to die.”

Grid # 2

#34 Mary Ann Godbee, dau of John and Lydia

“Hark, hear the sweet refrain From the heart
Prepare my friends to meet Your hastening doom.
When death arrives you must Obey its call Father, Mother, Brothers, Sisters, Lovers, all.”

#36 broken half of stone, person unknown

“Tho so early in this lonely spot Thy wasted form was doom’d to lie.
It’s mouldering dust won’t be forgot when Jesus comes from yonder sky.
This body then his call shall hear and rise from its imprisoned clay to soar above this changing sphere and live in one eternal day.”

#41 Mary Youngs, dau of David & Mary (illegible)

#45 Mehitabel L’Hommedieu, wife of Capt. Ephraim

“Stop reader shed a mournful tear
Upon the dust which slumbers here
And while you read the fate of me
Think on the glass that runs for thee.”

#47 John Pierson & Nathaniel Baker

“This stone erected by their fellow citizens is a tribute of respect to the memory of Nath’l Baker & John Pierson who were unfortunately killed in this place Feb. 23, 1815, by the accidental discharge of a cannon while celebrating the return of peace between the U. States & G. Britain. Their ages 22 years.”

#51 David Bates, son of Capt. Isachar and Hannah

“My Saviour now
Enthroned on high
Rose from the grave
And so shall I
For where he is There I must be.”

#53 Jemima Brown, wife of Capt. David
“An infant of Capt. David and Jemima Brown ae 1, lies buried by her side.”

#54 Captain David Brown
“As he lived revered and respected he died lamented by all equally.”

#55 Phebe K. Edwards, wife of Silas W.
“So fair, so young, so gentle, so sincere,
 so lovely, so early lost, may claim a tear.
 We mourn not, if the life resumed by Heaven was to every end for which ‘twas given.”

#56 Mary Latham, wife of Daniel
“In youthful bloom I was cut off My frame of mortal clay
 May rest awhile until I come To everlasting day.”

#57 Emmeline Latham, dau of Daniel and Mary
“The unrelenting hand of death Has closed her eyes, has stopt her breath.
 Nor youth nor tender love could save
 The darling from the op’ning grave.”

#58 Alden Spooner, son of Alden and Rebecca
“A son more pleasant to a parents eye Sure ne’er to mortals fondest hope was given.
 Awhile his Maker lent the lovely boy, but called him early to his native Heaven.”

#64 Rebecca Clark, wife of Captain Moses “Husband and children all farewell
 I sleep above and with you dwell Jesus calls and I must go from this world of sin and woe.”

#65 William Mulford Leek, son of Jacob and Harriet “Sick of a life precluding so much pain,
 He chose to give it back to God again.”

Grid # 3

#73 Jason Beebe, son of Capt. Lester & Bethiah

“Till the last hour of life thy loss we’ll mourn and show thy grace with tears of sorrow shed, O may we then on angels wings be borne to see him live, who now alas is dead.
We mourn thy sudden swift remorse from each and all enjoyments here.
When Christ commands we must obey without a murmur or a tear.”

#74 Edgar Fowler Fordham, son of Frederick & Samantha

“For of such is the kingdom of heaven.”

#75 George Frederick Fordham, son of Frederick & Samantha

“Suffer little children to come unto me.”

#77 Mary Ann Coles, dau of Phebe and Thaddeus

“Sleep on sweet babe and find thy rest, God call’d thee home, He thought it best.”

#80 Hugh G. Fordham

“It is but a just tribute of respect to his memory to say that in all the relations of life which he sustained, he was truly an amiable and excellent man.
He lived respected by all men
And universally honored.”

#81 Latham Fordham

“The eye of him that hath seen me
Shall see me no more.
Thine eyes are upon me and I am not.”

Job Chapter 7 Verse 8

#82 Sarah Eldredge (illegible)

#85 Sally Eldredge, wife of Stillman

“Readers
Nothing is worth & thought beneath
But how you may escape the death
That never dies.
How make your own election sure.”

Grid # 4

#89 Charles Matthews, son of Nathan and Betsey

"Sleep on sweet child and take thy rest.
God call'd thee home, he thought it best."

#90 Betsey Matthews, wife of Nathaniel (Nathan)

"This lonely place is dear to me
Tho over it no willows weep
For underneath its bowery sad
A companion's mould'ring ashes sleep."

#98 Capt. Elkanah Smith (illegible)

#99 Elkanah Smith

"Drowned on his passage from New York to Georgetown, South Carolina."

*In the midst of life and youthful bloom → He sought rest in ocean's deep.
And there he found a watery tomb
And left his friends behind to weep.*

100 Lucy Eldredge, wife of William

"Her happy soul is free Releas'd from mortal chains,
Has launched on that unbounded sea Where Christ forever reigns."

#106 Ruth B. Smith, wife of Capt. Charles Jr.

(8 lines) last 4 lines partially legible

"shall this would ring
And mingle with the dust,
Till Jesus calls us to the sky
To shine among the just."

#107 Theodore Bertrand Fordham, son of George and Frances

"Drowned in Gardiner's Bay off the Fire Place Point by the swamping of a sailboat, September 12, 1843."

$108 Clarissa Dering Fordham, dau of George & Frances (illegible)

Grid # 5

#111 Priscilla Wood, wife of Stephen D.

"There is a glorious rest
For weeping mortals given,
And when they sink on Earth's cold breast

They find that rest in Heaven.”

#116 Brewster Miller
“The noblest work of God
An honest man.”

#117 Tamos Tucker
“Teach me the measure of my days
thou author of my frame
I would survey life’s innermost space
and learn how frail I am.”

#118 Abigail Smith , dau. of Elias and Charlotte “Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade Death came with friendly care,
The opening bud to Heaven conveyed And bade it blossom there.”

#119 Cynthia B. Lugar, wife of George C.
“Thou art gone to thy final rest
Then why should my soul be so sad.
I know thou hast gone where the weary are blest
And the mourner looks up and is glad.”

#122 Caroline Prince, wife of Simeon
“There is a glorious rest
For weeping mortals given,
And when they sink on
Earth’s cold breast
They find that rest in Heaven.”

#123 Juan Antonio Dalosta (Portuguese Sailor)
“Erected by his fellow countrymen”.

#126 Francisco Jose Goncalves Labanja (Portuguese Sailor)
“Erected by his fellow countrymen”.

#127 Joachim Joze Panna (Portuguese Sailor)
“Erected by his fellow countrymen”.

#128 Francisco Lucianni (Portuguese Sailor)

“Erected by his fellow countrymen”.

#129 Manuel Francisco (Portuguese Sailor)

“Fell from the mast on Ship Hannibal July 24, 1833”. “Erected by his fellow countrymen”

#130 Charles Snook

“A kind husband, father and friend. Our loss is deeply felt”

#133 Samuel Oakley

“Honored by all who knew him Here sleeps the man in midst of life
Cut down in blooming youth.
Who left to weep a mourning wife and parents bath’d in tears, from brothers, sisters purest love from friendship’s tenderest ties God took his spirit far above Earth’s ever-changing skies.”

#136 Mehitabel Solomon, wife of Samuel

“ Draw near to him and Wipe off all your tears
I shall lie here till Christ appears
And when he comes I hope to strive Unto a life that never dies.”

#140 Lynus Russell, son of John and Sarah

“The lovely son was called home to dwell with spirits unknown.”

#141 Percey Scovil

“Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.”

#143 Mariah Halsey, dau of Henry

“Suffer little children to come unto me,
for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.”

#144 Phebe Ann Smith, dau. of David and Phebe

“By this you see no age is free from sickness, pain and death.”

#145 Capt. Richard P. Beckwith

#146 Mical C. Wiggins

“Reader prepare, remember death is near.
My time is past, eternity is here.
This speaking marble loud doth warn you all,
Youth, manhood, aged, to each a peaceful call.”

#147 James Wiggins

“Ye sons of men will satisfaction know God’s own right hand dispenses all below.
No good nor evil does by chance befall
He reigns supreme and he directs us all.”

#148 Capt. Lewis Smith

“Ah, but a just tribute to his memory, to say that as a husband, a neighbor, and citizen, he possessed all those qualities of which rendered him esteemed and respected by his friends and acquaintances.”

#149 Lettis Smith, wife of Captain Lewis

“Life and the grave two different lessons give Life teaches how to die, death how to live.”

#150 Obid Smith

“In the various relations of life
he discharged his duties with fidelity to himself, his family, his neighbors and his God.”

#151 Mercey Smith, wife of Obid

#152 Elizabeth D. Sherman, widow of Baldwin

“I go to a new house where there is no more trouble.”

Grid # 6

#154 John Nicoll Havens, son of Silas & Procurah

“Behold, inscrib’d upon this stone
A pleasant babe an only son,
A father’s groans and Mother’s cries Could not avail, so here he lies.”

#155 Cordela Havens, dau of Silas and Procurah

“No tender love nor innocence Could save the little darling from an untimely grave.”

#156 Proculah Havens, dau of Silas and Procurah

“Scarce liv’d the babe
The dawning day espied, Before it droop’d as little beads and died.”

#157 Hannah Gardiner, wife of Jeremiah

“Through --- thy day where in this land of rife ---- thou had fought the fight----- or ---- up the prize to triumph in yonder sky in heaven thy happy home.”

#158 Henry L. Smith

“This is the resting place of one cut down in the midst of youth, enterprise and hope. Affectionately loved him to the last, with her adornments and her tears.
She could do no more, and he fell asleep in the hope of that religion which had been his guide in life, and his comfort in sickness.”

JAC

#159 Elizabeth Smith, wife of Joseph (illegible)

#161 Captain Joseph Smith

“The winter of troubles is past
The storms of affliction are o’er His struggle is ended at last
And sorrow and death are no more”

#162 Hannah Foster, wife of Peter

“_____ngs of the Lord _____still shall find _____ holy, just and kind.”

(the first part of these lines are flaked off)

#163 Capt. William Parker (illegible)
below epitaph is “a tribute to Wm. Parker by Tilla and P---”

#164 Nancy Maria Parker, dau of William & Phebe
“When those we love are from us torn Tis meet that kindred hearts shall mourn.
Nor we fail the tear to shed Ov’r her who slumbers with the dead.
Our daughter, sister, sleeps beneath
For her we wear the cypress wreath
While her bright spirit mounts the sky
To mingle with the blest on high.”

#165 Capt. Henry Parker
first 8 lines illegible “Farewell dear friend. We leave thee with thy Savior and thy God.”

#167 Capt. Silas Sayre and Esther Sayre
“In life he was respected,
In death lamented.” “Erected by an affectionate son and brother of Charles D. Sayre.”

#168 Wickham Sayre
“Tis thine O Death the sender we to read of son, of brother and endearing friend.
Her Wickham ----- with ----- He ne’er had met ----- grave cease then to grieve ----- goodness thence,
He took but what he had reclaim’d his own.”

169 Jeremiah Sayre and David Sayre, Jr.
“Should this marble, reader, catch thine eye Don’t pass the solitary mansion bye;
There sleeps one brother whom his friends deplore
The other died on Georgia’s distant shore, Cut off in bloom they left the world behind A friend and parent in their God to find.”

#174 Nathan Sayre
“Who was drowned on a passage from this Port to New York on the night of October 7, 1826, aged 52 years.”

#177a Andrew Satterly, son of Capt. Stephen and Margaret
last line reads “return to death.”

#178 Margaret Satterly, relict of Capt. Stephen
“Farewell bright soul, a short farewell,
Till we shall meet again above
In the sweet groves where pleasures dwell
And trees of life bear fruits of love.”

#179 Thomas L. Harris and Henry D. Harris
“Who drowned in Gardiner’s Bay, November 27, 1823, ae 25 years. Remains were found on the beach near 3 Mile Harbor where they were interred July 17, 1824.”

#180 Amma (Amy) Harris, wife of Thomas Harris
“This no more than paying a just tribute to the memory of this excellent woman. To say that she was possessed of an eminent degree of the virtue of a Christian and devoted wife, a kind neighbor to the extent of her ability in time of sickness and plenty.
We said of her that as she lived, beloved in she died without an enemy and universally regretted.”

#181 Lucretia S. Harris, dau of Thomas and Amy “Smile on the blooming bud Death snatched her life away.
A soul returned to God
Her body to its native clay.”

#182 Sarah Scott Harris, dau of Thomas and Amy “May this instruct my friends No age from death is free.”

#183 Katurah Harris, dau of Thomas and Amy “My friend has gone and (chipped away) above.”

#185 Josiah Hand

“Oh we have watched his parting breath
And close his weary eyes,
And sighed to see how sadly death
Can sever human ties.”

188 Charity Corey, daughter of John and Phebe “An Evening bud
A morning flower
Cut down & withered in an hour.”

#190 Austin Stuart (illegible)

#191 Lucretia Pierson, wife of Hervey “Heaven gives us friends to bless the present scene, Resumes them to prepare us for the new.”

#192 Abigail Stuart, wife of Silas
“In the various relations of life which she sustained, she adorned the doctrines of the gospel.
She was an affectionate wife, a tender mother, a faithful friend, a pious and humble Christian.”

#195 Polly Stewart, wife of Silas, Jr.

#197 John Chase
“Stop traveller and know,
Death like a deluge sweeps Us to the grave.”

#201 Samuel Fordham
“Adieu my wife, sweet soother of my cares.
Adieu my babe, your loving father cries.
Beneath this stone my body sleeps in dust
My hopes in God I dwell among the skies.”

Grid # 7

#205 David Sherard
“Stop reader shed a mournful tear
Upon the dust which slumbers here

And while you read the fate of me
Think on the glass that runs for thee.
The eye of him that hath seen me
Shall see me no more, thine eyes are Upon me and I am not.”

#206 John Goodwin, Jr.

“Come all you friends as you pass by Upon this vault you cast your eye, Prepare for death for soon it will be,
Soon after this you follow me.”

#207 Nehemiah B. Cook

“At his own request.
Tho poor, he desired to make many rich.”

#208 William Lester Hall

“Died on a visit for benefit of his health in Sag Harbor August 4, 1803 age 28.
He was a native of Great Britain, received his education in the city of London and resided in the County of Effingham, in the state of Georgia”.

#210 Nabby Hard (or Hand), wife of Lemuel

“My dearest friends when this my grave you see,
hear the cry, prepare to follow me.”

216 Sally Halsey, wife of Job

“I bid adieu to all below.
I go where Angels dwell.
Since tis God’s will it shall be so.
I bid you all farewell.”

#217 Nancy Halsey, wife of George

“Her piety was exceptional, a testimonial consistent with manifesting itself in all her relations of life, leading her to rejoice in adulation and to be patient in suffering in the end and to meet the King of sorrow with the smile of friendship and hope of a blessed immortality”

220 Mehitabel Hildreth, wife of Capt. Luther

“Farewell bright soul a short farewell
Till we shall meet again above
In the sweet groves where pleasures dwell
And trees of life bear fruits of Love.”

#221 Captain Luther Hildreth

“To Heavens ____ will visions doth return Be ere it noonday or in blooming morn.
But small the difference when that summons given Be prepared to tread the gates of Heaven.”

#222 Abigail Hildreth, wife of Capt. Luther

“Till the last hour of general doom
May angels guard thy precious trust
To the cold chamber of her tomb
And keep secure her sleeping dust.”

#223 Hainulal Horton, wife of Capt. J. Havens Horton

“No sighs nor tears nor weeping friends could save,
The dear and lovely victim from the grave.”

#224 Henry Augustus Sleight, son of Henry C. and Cornelia (illegible)

#225 Luther Brown Hildreth, son of Samuel and Phebe (illegible)

#227 Eliza Tully Whittlesey, dau. of John & Sally

“Farewell my friends
Adieu to pain
My life was short Death is gain.”

#229 Sarah Hobart, wife of Benjamin

“Farewell dear partner, thou in earthy all, Drest in dust and wait the trumpets call.
In this retreat wrapt in death’s dismal gloom,
My sun rose fair but set ere it was noon,
Stop, stranger, stop and see how short my date
The silent tomb ere must be your fate.”

231 Rebekah Foster, daughter of Thomas and Rebekah

“My friends come see me as I lie
And know that you will surely die
Seek Heaven whilst you have your breath
And put not off the hour of Death.”

#232 Joseph W. Foster, Jr.

“As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness.
I shall be satisfied when I awake with thy likeness.” Psalms 17:15

235 Betsey Fordham, wife of John

“Teach me to live that I may dread the grave as little as my bed.
Teach me to die that so I may Triumphing rise on the last day.”

#237 Charity Corey, wife of Braddock

“I’ve found the pearl of greatest price
My Christ what shall I call
My Christ is first
My Christ is last
My Christ is all in all.”

#238 Frances Boardman, wife of Daniel

“Afflictions sore long time she bore Physicians were in vain.
Till death gave ease and God did please to free her from her pain.”

#239 Lydia Ripley

“Glory be to God; his ways are just And every of life (or wife)
What bodies sleep in
..... shall rife.” (part of the stone has flaked off)

Grid # 8

#240 Hetty Parker

“Whosoever drinketh of the water that it shall fill him, Shall never thirst.”

#241 Sally Hand, wife of Isaac

(a sandstone gravestone partially spalled. Last two lines read)

“Their spirit freed to world’s unknown, Reader prepare to follow on.”

#243 Abigail Fordham, wife of Nathan (broken base)

The epitaph recorded by Louis Tooker Vail when he did an inventory in 1950 read

“No more the thought which fills the mind with woe,

No more the tears of Keen sensation flow,

For while perhaps the hand of God we moan,

She swells the Anthem at her Father’s throne.”

#244 Nathan and Sarah Fordham, (broken stone and base) (illegible)

#248 Hannah Parker, wife of Capt. James H.

“And angels food were her repast

Devotion was her work and thence she tried

Delights which strangers never taste.”

#249 James Parker, son of Capt. James H. and Hannah

“Even so them also which die in Jesus will God bring with him.”

#250 Maria Sleight Higbie, wife of Aaron H.

“Life’s duty done, depart the day and from its hand the spirit lay

While heaven & earth combine -----

She lived the righteous -----

#256 Henry Hildreth, son of Capt. John and Christiana

“How early -----

----- had

and restore -----

-----her boy

And ----- will ----- rise

O thoughtful remembrances of the day -----

Tis thy fondest ----- beyond -----

And strait pl-----nce thy hastening doom.”

#258 Capt. John Hildreth

“Milk and a swathe at first our whole demand.

Our whole domain at last a turf or stone.”

#259 Hugh Gelston

“As a tribute of respect to the memory of Mr. Gelston, justice to say that he was an affectionate husband, a kind neighbor, a faithful friend, a Patriot, and was all an honest man, the noblest work of God, to such he was respected, beloved, and deplored to all who knew him.”

#260 Puah Gelston, wife of Hugh “Mrs. Gelston was for many years, a member of the Presbyterian Church in this place, and though her last protracted illness she enjoyed much of the consolation of the Christian hope of Heaven, hearing witness in the truths of the Gospel, the doctrines of which she adorned by an exemplary life and consolation.”

#264 Elizabeth Gelston, wife of David

“For fifty years she treaded disconsolately in the path of widowhood, nor seemed ever to forget him to whom in early life she had wedded her earthly affections, but who in a seemingly untimely hour had been suddenly cut down a stroke of Providence that caused the throne of reason to tremble to its very centre and despair and sorrow to usurp the place of trust and repose even to the end of her journey through life.”

#265 David Gelston

“How lov’d, how chance avails thee not to whom related or by whom begot
A heap of dust alone remains of thee Tis all thou art and all the proud shall be.”

#266 Sylvanus Howell

“Not all the tears of those I love could keep my soul from Christ above, from Jesus my best friend.
Hark, it’s his Heavenly voice I hear farewell my wife, my children dear, my sorrows now shall end.”

#267 Benjamin M. Howell, son of Silvanus and Mary

“Adieu my friends
Adieu to pain,
My life was short
But death is gain.”

#268 James Boyles Howell, son of Silvanus and Mary “Farewell sweet babe go take thy rest.
Recline thy head
On Jesus breast.”

#273 Roxana Stuart, wife of Nathan “Arise dear soul
and take thy heavenly flight.
Thru the dark regions of the gloomy night.
The stars will all their light display to guide thee onward to eternal day.”

274 Jane Fordham, wife of Capt. John M.
“Calm and serene She yields her mortal breath
In hope of Bliss she triumphs over Death In vain the Billows of death Jordan roll
To crown and overwhelm her pious soul.”

#277 Henry Cooper, son of Thomas and Harriot
“Happy the babe who privileged by fate
To shorter labours & a lighter weight.
Receiv’d but yesterday the gift of breath.”

Grid # 9

#278 Mary C. Jones, dau. of Capt. William and Charity “Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.”

#279 John N. Fordham (illegible)

#280 Julia Ann Fordham, dau. of John and Jane “Youth stay thy glee, turn hence thine eye Learn how to live, know you must die.
Age mark me well, how thin the thread

One moment and the grave's thy bed."

#281 Sophia Norton, wife of Capt. Thomas

"As far removed from life's all suffering woes,
Beneath this block her mouldering limbs repose.
Her troubles cease, the weary are at rest.
Our Jesus saved twas God Almighty blest."

#282 Capt. Thomas Norton

"Saved from care and pain and all the ills and strife, _____ kind _____ and joy of my life,
(rest of epitaph is illegible)

#286 Mary Gates Perkins, dau. of Erastus & Mary

"Dear lovely babe repose in peace, Now all thy worldly sorrows cease.
No more the rude convulsions make Thy little frame shall no more shake."

#290 Lucetta Augusta Wade, dau. of Jared and Catherine

"So fades the lovely blooming flower Find smiling solace of an hour,
So soon our transient comforts fly,
And pleasures only bloom to die."

#293 Charles Henry Partridge, son of Asa & Betsey

In Remembrance of Charles Henry Partridge, only son of Asa Partridge, Esq. who died at San Jose in the Republic of Costa-Rica formerly the Kingdom of Central America.

"He died in a foreign land but he died with resignation and with hope."

#294 Betsey Conklin Partridge, wife of Asa

In memory of Betsey Partridge, wife of Asa Partridge, born and long a resident in this place and who died in the city of New York.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Rev. XIV 13

"And hast bourne and hast patience and for my name's sake and hath laboured and hast not fainted." Rev. II 3

#295 Asa Partridge

Who was born in Preston, Conn. lived in Sag Harbor nearly 70 years and died in the city of New York.

“And when they came that were hired, about the eleventh hour they received every man a penny.” Matthew XX 10

#298 Betsey Maria Sheffield, daughter of Isaac and Betsey

“Ah why so short
The flow’r appears Strays the brief blossom from the veil of tears.
Death received the treasure to the deserts? given Claimed the fair forever, and planted in Heaven.”

#299 Mary Abigail Parker, wife of Capt. William

“Saved from sin and pain and all the ills of life, Here rests a tender mother & a virtuous wife.
Sleep on Angelic saint thy maker’s will obey, Then rise again unchanged and mount to endless day.”

#302 Nancy Parker, wife of Abraham

“Affliction sore long time I bore,
Physicians were in vain,
Till death did ease and God did please to free me from my pain.”

#303 John Sherman Lesliuce, son of David and Esther

“Sleep on sweet babe and take your rest, God call’d you home, he thought it best.”

Grid # 10

#305 Margaret Sayre (illegible)

#306 William Sayre (illegible)

#307 Nancy Sayre Raynor, wife of George (illegible)

#309 Rebecca Collins, wife of Samuel

“Come thy best of over thy ---- of values
And mourns with all the
.... that he called
The fate of her who lies beneath

How happy those who early died
And lie reposing by thy side While we our parent from us torn Are left to weep, lament and mourn.”

#310 Luther Halsey Collins, son of Samuel & Eliza “See here what cruel death hath done.
Here sleeps in death an only son.
Parents bleeding hearts
now say
The Lord both gave and took away.

#314 Frederick Franklin
“The wound that’s made where
death the knot unties,
no one knows but those
who realize.”

#315 James H. Rogers, son of Mary “I take these little lambs said he And lay them on my breast, Protection they shall find in me,
In me be ever blest.”

#316 Mary Kendrick, wife of Thomas
“I’m home dear children, dry up your tears.
I must lie here till Christ appears.”

#318 Elihu Edwards
“His life was gentle and serene his mind, His morals pure, in every action just,
A husband dear and as a parent, kind
As such he lies lamented in the dust.”

#319 Elizabeth (Betsey) Edwards, widow of Elihu “Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.” Rev. XIV 13.

#320 Samuel Edwards
“Short was thy passing through this world of woe
To the bright realms of bliss to which the righteous go But soon we hope to meet when this short life is o'er To the bright world above where parting is no more."

#321 Abraham Cory (illegible)

#327 Sarah Halsey, wife of Eliphalet, (illegible)

#328 Sarah Halsey, dau of Eliphalet & Sarah
"As she lived beloved & spiritual, so she died Immortaled by all who knew her
With the love of Christ in her heart,
The love of Heaven in her eye, she fell silently asleep in death only to awake to Immortality & life beyond the grave."

J. Ritter

N.H. Ct

#329 Robert Roberts

"Oh death how hidden was thy visit paid Scarce had I warning of thy fatal blow To pitying friends who view where I am laid Under the earth with sympathetic love."

#331 Robert E. Havens, son of Samuel & Esther

"End your weeping, Oh dry those tears I have pass'd the gulph of pain and tears."

#332 Mary Hasbrook, wife of Alfred

"The wound that's made where
death the knot unties,
no one knows but those
who realize."